Dear Mrs Bailey

Thanks for your letter, and the sweet little snap, what a pretty scene it makes, and the syringa must be lovely both to look at and to smell . It is late, because others I know of are over . I am glad to have a photo of the garden and they all think it looks sweet .

I send you the strings by return . Is the Balalaika orchestra going to be revived ?

I went away for a week end from Friday till last Sunday night to Kingsdown near Deal, where my second daughter has a dear little cottage, with quite a big garden, and I came back looking like a boiled lobster, and they say look as though I have been away for a fortnight . The change did me a lot of good, and I worked in the garden like a nigger while they were doing the household chores, then we took lunch on the beach and stayed all day, getting our tea at a very pretty Tea house run by a girl from Richmond, who has a great flair for making the most attractive cakes and things, almost as good as yours !

In the cool of the evening we went for long walks on the downs very health giving . I had never been there before , but all the family have been there for years and love it .

No more now, lots of love to you all, I am revelling in this weather, and do my work without coat or waistcoat .

Yours very sincerely .

Clifford Essex
